6 Haveras

Sedbergh, Sedbergh

This well proportioned mid terraced house is located in the historic market town of Sedbergh, on the edge of the Yorkshire Dales National Park. Surrounded by stunning scenery and within easy reach of Kendal, the Lake District, and excellent road links, the property enjoys a peaceful setting while remaining convenient for schools, shops, and local amenities.

Inside, the heart of the home is a spacious sitting room where a charming wood burning stove sits beneath a striking green feature wall. A bay window floods the space with natural light and offers pleasant views towards the Howgills, and seamlessly incorporates a dining area and ample storage. The kitchen provides generous worktops, a breakfast bar, range cooker and space for appliances, making it practical for both everyday cooking and entertaining. Upstairs, three well proportioned bedrooms plus an attic room with Velux windows, ideal for children, guests, or a home office and the bathroom features a rainfall shower and contemporary vanity unit. The property also benefits from double glazing and gas central heating throughout.

Externally, the property offers a fenced rear garden with a lawn, planting beds, and multiple seating areas for outdoor relaxation or al fresco dining. To the front, there is a traditional stone pathway and garden, with the potential to create off road parking if desired, further adding to the home's practicality.

Offering generous accommodation in a desirable location, this Sedbergh home presents an excellent opportunity for buyers seeking space and potential in the heart of Cumbria's beautiful countryside. Early viewing is recommended to appreciate all that it has to offer.
